

Council Adventure Partnership Council Commitment & Contact Information

I. Overview

The Council Adventure Partnership is a joint program between James C. Justice National Scout Camp at The Summit Bechtel Reserve and a local BSA council targeted at serving older youth campers. Participants in the program register and attend their local council camp with their home troop or crew. While at the local council camp they form a provisional group which travels to the Summit Bechtel Reserve to spend five days (Monday afternoon through Friday morning) taking advantage of adventure activities available in the Walter Scott Summit Center.

Interested councils should return page 2 of this form to Phillip Ferrier, National Scout Camp Director by email, fax, or mail.

II. The Summit Bechtel Reserve agrees to:

1. Provide the local council promotional support through fliers, leaders guides, logos, and/or social media/digital resources
2. Provide tents, cots, shower houses, and other campsite amenities to all participants
3. Provide breakfast, lunch, and dinner to all participants during regular hours at the Summit Dining Hall beginning with Monday dinner through Friday breakfast
4. Provide commissioner and support staff
5. Provide free lodging and meals for to up to two adult volunteers or staff members from each council who do not participate in adventure activities
6. Provide access to activities within the Walter Scott Summit Center and James C. Justice National Scout Camp to paying participants during operational hours including equipment, supervision, and instruction (Note: this does not include activities in the Paul R. Christen National High Adventure Base like the Big Zip, Rocks, or Barrels)
7. Provide a half-day rafting experience for participants with a $75 additional fee
8. Provide the local council with a written bill or invoice for the number of participants by August 30th of the year attending.

III. The local council agrees to:

1. Promote the program to units potentially attending camp at leaders' meetings, guides, newsletters, or other council events
2. Set a reasonable fee for participants taking part in the program
3. Register and collect fees from participants
4. Provide the Summit Bechtel Reserve with copies of all required paperwork for each participant including Annual Health & Medical Forms, Summit Waivers, and whitewater waivers (if applicable)
5. Pass on all relevant information to participants including leader guide, program schedules, etc
6. Provide the Summit Bechtel Reserve with an estimated number of participants by week no later than June 1 of the year attending
7. Provide transportation for units to the Summit Bechtel Reserve or collaborate with others councils for transportation
8. Provide or collaborate with other councils to provide minimum adult leadership for their contingent to follow the BSA's Youth Protection guidelines
9. Payment to the Summit Bechtel Reserve of $250 per youth or adult participating in adventure activities within 30 days of receipt of invoice
10. Understand and communicate what programs are available to participants (Justice National Scout Camp, and not the Christen National High Adventure Base)
