

Summit Bechtel Reserve SUSTAINABILITY AWARD

Each participant at the Summit can earn the Summit Sustainability Award, which encourages Scouts and leaders to explore human impact on the Earth and to identify ways to preserve, conserve, and be good stewards of its resources. All participants are encouraged to earn the Sustainability Award to reflect the central place of sustainability and conservation in the Scouting movement. While this award has a component that must be completed for the entire unit, the remainder of this award should be completed individually.

The Requirements for the Summit Sustainability Award

Complete all of the following requirements.

- _____ The unit/crew designates an individual (youth) to serve as the outdoor ethics guide throughout the stay at the Summit; this individual must attend the outdoor ethics meeting on the first day of camp to receive a small guidebook, which details the principles of Leave No Trace.
- _____ Tour the Sustainability Treehouse and document at least five things that were learned.
- _____ Throughout the stay at the Summit, practice the Seven Principles of Leave No Trace. Document at least one example of each principle.
- _____ Pick up and dispose of at least one piece of trash each day at the Summit.
- _____ During one of the final two days at the Summit, share the actions and observations documented throughout the week with the unit/crew. Each member of the unit/crew who is working on the Summit Sustainability Award should share his or her own observations, actions, and experiences related to Sustainability.

To purchase the Summit Sustainability Award, complete this form, certified by the outdoor ethics guide and the unit leader, and return it to the Trading Post.
