Program Considerations

Program Equipment

- All program equipment is provided by the Summit, including:
 - Personal protective equipment (helmets, pads, harnesses, ropes, belay devices, gloves, etc.)
 - Bikes
 - Skateboards
 - Firearms and ammunition
 - Bows
- Participants are welcome, but not required, to bring the following:
 - Climbing shoes and chalk bag
 - Skateboards (must be inspected by director)

Appropriate Footwear

- Skateboarding, BMX & Mountain Biking
 - No Good: Hiking Boots
 - Better: Tennis-shoes/sneakers
 - Best: Skate Shoes

Swimming Ability

- Swimming ability tests should be completed before camp
- Participants must be classified as a swimmer to participate in kayaking, paddleboarding, water reality and whitewater programs

Camp Life

Equipment and Facilities

- Dome tents (if already rented; if not, make sure to bring your tent!)
- Cots (provided for all participants)
- Dining fly (provided for all units)
- Picnic tables (provided for all units)
- Above-ground fire ring
- Shower houses
 - Flush toilets
 - Mirrors, sinks, and potable water
 - Solar bags encouraged (ambient-temp showers)
- AT&T Wi-Fi, camp-wide

Swim Checks

To participate in any aquatics activity at the Summit (including whitewater rafting), participants (youth and adult) must provide proof of designation as a swimmer after completing the BSA swim classification test; it is the responsibility of the unit to validate swimming ability

- BSA Swim Classification Test: Crew must bring two copies of the completed Summit Swim Test Master Form; each member of the crew should be listed in the appropriate area, according to their classification.
- Buddy Tags: The Summit will provide you with buddy tags and appropriate (red and blue) markers at check-in. You will need to fill out the buddy tags, designating participants as nonswimmers, beginners, or swimmers, based on your Swim Test Master Form. All buddy tags will need to be turned in by the unit to the aquatics area once complete (unit leaders should complete this process). Even if an aquatic activity is not part of a participant's program schedule during the daytime, there will be opportunities to do activities in evening free times.

Buddy tags are not needed for whitewater rafting, though all participants must be classified as swimmers to participate.

BSA Annual Health and Medical Record

- Every participant (youth and adult) is required to have a medical evaluation within twelve (12) months of their participation date by a physician licensed to practice medicine.
- Forms are available at: <http://www.scouting.org/scoutsource/HealthandSafety/ahmr.aspx>; select the Summit-specific form, which is located at the end of the page (all parts must be completed fully)
- Immunization Update
 - Verification is required that adequate tetanus immunization has been given within the last ten years prior to arrival at the Summit; if this immunization is provided by the Summit, the participant will be charged
 - The following is the policy of the Boy Scouts of America regarding medical requirements: Medical examinations for camp attendance are required of all campers for the protection of the entire camp group. The immunization requirement is waived for persons with religious beliefs against immunization.
 - Go to the following link to download the Immunization Waiver Form and bring the completed for with your medical form: <https://filestore.scouting.org/filestore/pdf/680-451.pdf>

Summit Medical Exemptions Form

- If any participant in the unit/crew requires (or would like to request) any sort of medical exemption (the details of which can be discussed with the Summit's health and safety team), complete the form available at https://forms.office.com/pages/responsepage.aspx?id=oAiQ_UZ4iUmkxXfPrT9-TqXdY4R44Q9Fjwpsm9Gh8y5UNE0zSVBaRkIBSEo4Uk9FRUZIQlpMQ1IOViQIQCN0PWcu

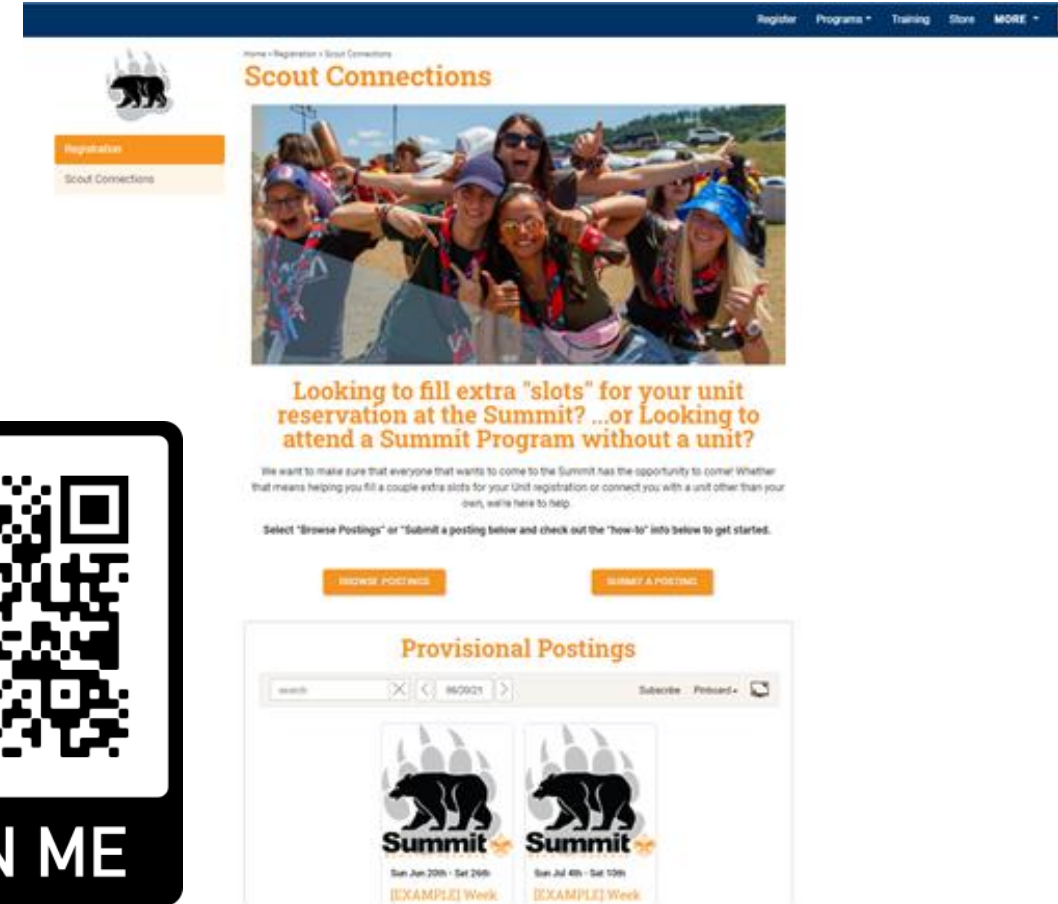

Foodservice and Dietary Needs

- The foodservice staff at the Summit takes food allergies and specific dietary needs seriously
- Visit <https://linktr.ee/sbrdietary> or scan the Q.R. code on this slide to complete the Specific Dietary Needs form
- Participants are welcome to bring and store supplemental food at the Summit, especially if there is concern about the Summit's ability to accommodate a specific need

Scout Connections

- Have extra room for provisional Scouts?
- Have a Scout who can't attend with your unit, but wants to go to camp?
- Post your unit's willingness to host or have a parent post their desire to attend a different week of camp!

www.summitbsa.org/scoutconnections

Summit Staff

- Experienced adult instructors
- Problem-solving support staff
- Education and safety-oriented
- Passionate Scouters
- Fun and engaging personalities

Now accepting applications for 2023 seasonal staff!

The Summit Bechtel Reserve (SBR) is currently seeking seasonal staff to operate and support its 2023 summer programs. Positions are varied and include overall camp support, in addition to specializations within each of our four main operational areas: the Paul R. Christen National High Adventure Base; the James C. Justice National Scout Camp; Family Adventure Camp; and the John D. Tickle National Training & Leadership Center.

Be a part of something big – we need your help to give our guests the best experience of their lives! Don't delay, apply today!
